IDENTIFICATION INFORMATION CARD

Michigan Educational Credit Union

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person.

What this means for you: We will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying objects.

Complete all information on reverse side, and sign on the bottom.

Multiple Name Account Agreement

The joint owners of this account hereby agree with each other and with the credit union that all sums now paid into this account, by any or all of said joint owners with all accumulations thereon, are and shall be owned by them jointly, with right of survivorship, and shall be subject to withdrawal or receipt of any of them, except to the extent an initialed restriction applies. Payment in accordance with such a proper demand shall be valid and discharge the credit union from any liability for such payment.

The credit union is hereby authorized to recognize the signatures(s) in the payment of funds or the transaction of any business for this account. However, no individual may be removed as an owner of this account, except upon death, without that individual's consent.
